IN THE MIDDLE ORDER OF MANKING

MR. MCKINLEY'S VICTORY.

MR. McKINLEY'S VICTORY.
The great electoral battle beyond the Atlantic has ended in the utter rout
of the party which associated itself
with a programme of rank dishonesty and wholeasle robbery. We heartily congratulate the American people on this demonstration of their respect for the rights of property. Had Mr.
Bryan headed the poll, creditors would have been cheated out of fully half their dues, by being compelled to accept payment in silver, while Socialism would have gone ahead in fine their dues, by being compensation cept payment in silver, while So ism would have gone ahead in style to fleece all property ow Whether, then, this phenomenal test be regarded from an America style to neece an property owners. Whether, then, this phenomenal contest be regarded from an American or from a European standpoint, the overwhelming character of Mr. McKinley's victory is a matter for profound estifaction. Not for a very long time will any candidate for the Presidency adopt the revolutionary tenets which have brought Mr. Bryan and his Socialistic tutor, Governor Altgeld, to such utter grief. Of course, this country would have been still better pleased had Mr. McKinley toned down his advocacy of Protection in its most drastic forms. But this drawback counts for little in comparison with the immense gain accruing to mankind at large from the overwhelming condemnation by the American people of principles subversive of the very framework of society. It is more than probable, too, that the new President will hesitate to put back the hands of the clock by increasing the tariff. Even as it stands, it presest very heavily on the agricultural population, who get no equivalent for the high prices they have to pay for manufactured goods. In any case, Mr. McKinley will not be in a position to make any change for a considerable period, and in the meanwhile, many things may happen. Apart from this one weak point, he has all the makings of a capable President, and is not likely to show much countenance to those who would set England and the United States by the ears.

Owing to forgy weather the s.s.

Queensland, having on board Pedio O'Nellano, alleged to have killed Even Evans while at sea on Oct. 18, was unable to get up from Gravesend for London yesterday. He lost a quantity of blood, and died the same exening. It was stated that Evans, on coming on juty, called up the same exening. It is too early as yet to express any confident epinion as to the later effect of this momentous struggle on speculation. A FIREWORKS FATALITY.

In the case of Nutley and another v. Wells and Co., defeadant, Mr. J. C. Wells, appealed from a decision of the County Court judge at Brighton, who had entered judgment for plaintiffs. In May last, a Foresters' fete was held at Preston Park, near Brighton, and the Foresters engaged Mesers. Wells and Co. (Ltd.) to supply fireworks and manage the display, Mr. J. C. Wells, all of the servants of the company, applied a match to one of the firework mortars, which stood on the ground, and was not buried. The mortar exploded. One person was killed, and others, including plaintiffs, were injured. The County Court judge found as a fact no personal negligence on the part of defendant, Mr. J. C. Wells, but decided, as a question of law, that without pedigence a servant was liable, where, in the discharge of his employer's orders, personal injuries resulted to others. Against this judgment Mr. Wells appealed.—Mr. A. J. Walter supportal the appeal, while Mr. Brall opposed it.—Their lordships, without deciding the point of law, held that there was ample evidence of negligence.—Appeal dismissed with costs.
